The Editors-in-Chief have retracted this article because Table 2 contains data used in a previously published article (Liu et al. 2021). Additionally, the authors stated that some of the values in Table 2 are not derived from the original data. The data reported in this article is therefore unreliable. Yongyong Tang has stated he was responsible for collecting data presented in Table 2.

All authors agree to this retraction and to the wording of this retraction notice.
