Correction to: Social Choice and Welfare

We regret that during proof correction stage, the following errors were inadvertently made by our production team:

In the abstract, the word “questions” was missed: “as sets of and corresponding partial answers to them” should be “as sets of questions and corresponding partial answers to them”.

Section 3, in the definition of an answer update, the right angle bracket is accidentally superscripted. It should not be superscripted.

In first paragraph of Section 4, superscript question mark after the X was missed: Yes or No<sup>X</sup> should be Yes or No<sup>X?</sup>

In footnote 3, the reference citation “(see Hoek 2019)” was removed.

The substitution of angle brackets for “<” and “>” was not done consistently in Sections 2, 3 and 4.

The name Adam Lovett was missed in the acknowledgements. Now, the amended text provide in the acknowledgements section.

The original article has been corrected.
