In this article the author's name was incorrectly written as Constantine K. Demetropolous and has been corrected and will appear as Constantine K. Demetropoulos.

The original article has also been updated to show the line indicating the timing of the L5 fracture in test WS11-03 has been shifted to the right by ~5 ms. Figures 3, 4, 5, and 7 in the original article have been updated to show shaded corridors that were absent in the original version.

The original has been corrected.
