The original version of this article unfortunately contained a mistake. The conflict of interest statement was missing in the article. The CoI statement is given below.

Compliance with Ethical Standards

Conflict of interest The Parenting and Family Support Centre is partly funded by royalties stemming from published resources of the Triple P—Positive Parenting Program, which is developed and owned by the University of Queensland (UQ). Royalties are also distributed to the Faculty of Health and Behavioural Sciences at UQ and contributory authors of published Triple P resources. Triple P International (TPI) Pty Ltd is a private company licensed by Uniquist Pty Ltd on behalf of UQ, to publish and disseminate Triple P worldwide. The authors of this report have no share or ownership of TPI. Burke does not currently but may in the future receive royalties from TPI. Morawska receives royalties from TPI. Sanders receives royalties and consultancy fees from TPI. Prinz is a consultant to TPI. TPI had no involvement in the study design, collection, analysis or interpretation of data, or writing of this report. Burke, Morawska, and Sanders are employees at UQ.
