Dear Colleagues:

This double issue includes Special Issue papers and contributed papers. The Special Issue papers relate to SI: Autonomous Robot Systems. Detailed information about this issue is given in the Guest Editorial. The second part of this double issue includes eight (8) contributed papers.

As mentioned in a previous Editorial, we have made great progress in processing and publishing accepted papers as soon as possible after acceptance.

We are within our goal, and we will keep on reporting to you.

In the meantime, enjoy the issue.
