

From the Editor of Sexuality and Disability: A Social Work Voice Relates to Sexuality and Disability

Sigmund Hough

Published online: 5 November 2014
© Springer Science+Business Media New York 2014

Welcome!

Sexuality and Disability continues the mission to provide original impact articles addressing the mental health and medical aspects of sexuality in relation to rehabilitation, hospital, academic and community settings, publishing up-to-date articles, case studies, clinical practice reports, reviews, featured articles, historical articles, special grand rounds topics, brief research reports and survey data reports. Value benefit is provided to authors through worldwide electronic exposure and professional access, while readership gains from scholarly contributions to advance the field through research, best-practice and educational articles. The refined lens of individual contributions from the local and international community continues to deliver a wealth of information on the topic of sexuality and disability for the reader. Thank you for being a part of our international professional network.

In December 2014, our special theme “The Emerging Intersection of Sexuality and Disability in the Profession of Social Work” comes together in providing perspective, research and stimulating thought-provoking information. An outstanding resource for readership, we thank Mr. Joseph A LoGiudice, L.M.S.W. for his excellent efforts as Guest Editor for this Special Issue.

S. Hough (✉)
396 Washington Street, Suite 211, Wellesley Hills, MA 02481, USA
e-mail: Sigmund_Hough@hms.harvard.edu