Erratum to: J Supercomput (2012) 62:916–945 DOI 10.1007/s11227-012-0763-0

The published paper contains a serious error (note the section highlighted with bold formatting) in the Abstract which the authors wish to make a correction on:

The Covering Arrays (CAs) are mathematical objects with minimal coverage and maximum cardinality that are a good tool for the design of experiments.
