

This volume is dedicated to

Andrzej Granas

honoring his important mathematical achievements in topology and analysis.

Andrzej Granas was the founder of the Journal of Fixed Point Theory and Applications, of which he was editor in chief from the first volume in 2007 to the end of 2014. The whole editorial board would like to thank him for his dedication to a journal which without his enthusiasm and energy would simply not exist.

