Correction to: European Journal of Information Systems (2015) 24(2), 178–201. doi: 10.1057/ejis.2014.38

The citation for Figure 1 appearing on page 181 of the paper was incorrect as:

They are the result of a new holistic pattern that unfolds over time (as shown in Figure 1 above) and reinforces itself (Simon, 1996).

The citation should have been for Figure 2 and should have appeared as follows:

They are the result of a new holistic pattern that unfolds over time (as shown in Figure 2 above) and reinforces itself (Simon, 1996).

The text appearing on page 183 of the paper featured superfluous characters as:

Governance then balances hierarchy and 'divisionalisation' (Zhou, 2013, 2011), in-sourcing and outsourcing (Argyres & Bigelow, 2010),@### and trends between resource centralisation and setting limits to the system (Arrow, 1971).

The above text should have appeared as follows:

Governance then balances hierarchy and 'divisionalisation' (Zhou, 2013, 2011), in-sourcing and outsourcing (Argyres & Bigelow, 2010), and trends between resource centralisation and setting limits to the system (Arrow, 1971).

The author surname throughout the paper on the header section should say Busquets.

A capital letter was missing from the title, this has now been corrected.
