A Note on the Text

This volume reprints the Grafton Press publication of Stein's Three Lives (1909). Copyright, 1909, renewed, 1936, by Gertrude Stein. All rights reserved under International and Pan-American Copyright Conventions.

Annotations have been included where words or terms may be unfamiliar to readers.

Wherever possible, the text of the documents in Part Two is that of the original edition, and unless otherwise indicated in the headnote for a document, the text has not been modified from the copy text. Students should expect to encounter some archaic or variant spelling and punctuation conventions.
