The inadvertently published contents have been corrected as mentioned below.

Chapter 19

In Page 389, the content “The solution for the source code is provided with due acknowledgment of the work of Jon King [10].” has been added next to the content “quite intuitive” in the paragraph starting with “Listing 19-1...”

In Page 390, the caption of Fig. 19-1 has been modified as “Differential Cryptanalysis Example [10]”.

In Page 390, the Listing 19-1 has a first line added up as “Credit to the work of Jon King [10].

In Page 400, the content “with due acknowledgment of Jon King’s work [11].” has been added next to the content “(see Figure 19-2)” in the paragraph starting with “This being said...”

In Page 400, the content “[11]” has been added at the end of the caption of Fig. 19-2.

In Page 409, the references “[10]. King Jon, Differential Cryptanalysis Tutorial. Available online: <http://www.theamazingking.com/crypto-diff.php>.

[11]. King Jon, Linear Cryptanalysis Tutorial. Available online: <http://www.theamazingking.com/crypto-linear.php>,” has been added to the references list appearing at the end of the chapter page.

Chapter 20

In Page 413, the content “based on the work of Joan Daemon [1] and [2]” has been added next to the content “comments” in the paragraph starting with “In the source code...”

In Page 414, the content “[1, 2]” has been added at the end of the caption of Listing. 20-1.

In Page 422, the content “[1]” has been added at the end of the caption of Figure. 20-1.

In Page 422, the current affiliation has been replaced with “[1] Joan Daemen, Lars Knudsen, and Vincent Rijmen(1997). The Block Cipher Square.
