Correction to: Beyond the Managed Body: Putting Menstrual Literacy at the Center

Correction to:

Chapter-8 in: C. Bobel, The Managed Body, https://doi.org/10.1007/978-3-319-89414-0_8

The original version of the book incorrectly stated on page 304, “If the approximately 800 girls and women menstruating on any given day were body literate and empowered to make choices in their own best interests, the menstrual movement will have met triumphant success”. This has been updated to, “If the approximately 300 girls and women menstruating on any given day were body literate and empowered to make choices in their own best interests, the menstrual movement will have met triumphant success”. The erratum book has been updated with the change.
