Second International Symposium on Intensive Care and Emergency Medicine, 24–26 March 1982, Brussels

The Second International Symposium on Intensive Care and Emergency Medicine is organized by the Department of Intensive Care and Emergency Medicine of the Erasme Hospital (Université Libre de Bruxelles) and "Promotion des Soins Intensifs" a.s.b.l. It is sponsored by the Belgian Society of Intensive Care.

The meeting is open to all physicians, students and paramedics interested in critical care and emergency medicine. The objective of this educational symposium is to revise concepts and technology in the management of the critically ill. Foreign specialists and lecturers from each Belgian university have been invited to participate in the programme. The working language of the symposium is English. Time will be reserved for open and private discussions.

The symposium will be held at the Institute of Sociology of the Free University of Brussels (Avenue Jeanne).

There will be an exhibit of scientific and technical material held concomitantly with the symposium.

Registration Fees: Specialists BF 4500.00; Residents BF 3000.00; Students, nurses and therapists BF 2000.00. The registration fee includes admission to the symposium, proceedings and three lunches. Hotel accommodation can be provided by the organizing committee. All registrants are requested to complete the attached form.

The registration fee should be remitted to "Promotion des Soins Intensifs (a.s.b.l.)" account 001-0822395-08 (CGER Bank) mentioning "International Symposium March 1982". The programme will be mailed to all registrants after receipt of the registration fee.
