Corrections

In the paper "Potato genetic resources: Sources of resistance and systematics" by Spooner and Bamberg, published in Vol. 71, No. 5 of the American Potato Journal, pages 325–328, the following corrections should be noted.

1. On page 325, after the first paragraph the word Introduction should be inserted.

2. Page 327, in the 3rd word line, the word is disease resistance, not diseases.

3. Page 330, in the 7th word line above Germplasm Availability the word should be respectively, not respectfully.

4. In literature citation #44, the authors should read Hermesen, J.G. . . . O.H. Marshall and D.R. Williams.

5. In literature citations #22 and #23, the a and b after the year of publication should be deleted.

6. In literature citation #83, delete the 19XX, but add after Am Potato J 71:317–324.

7. In literature citation #84, the authors were Storch, R.H. and F.E. Manzer.

8. In literature citation #88, the title is Fungicide loss costly, not less costly.
