OBITUARY

DOCTOR JAMES ANGUS PORTER

THE DEATH OF Doctor James Angus Porter occurred in Vancouver on April 3, 1964. Born in Cadillac, Saskatchewan, the deceased received his university education at the University of Manitoba, graduating with his M.D. degree in 1940. Following internship at the St. Boniface General Hospital, Dr. Porter spent two years in post-graduate training in Surgery and Anaesthesia at the Winnipeg General Hospital and the Deer Lodge Hospital in Winnipeg.

For a short time he practised in Manitoba, then moved to Vancouver, where he established a large General Practice combined with anaesthesia and for a short period was a member of the anaesthetic staff of St. Paul's Hospital. During the past several years he conducted an extensive dental anaesthesia clinic providing all the facilities for visiting dentists.

Dr. Porter was a member of the Canadian Anaesthetists' Society, the B.C. Medical Association, the Canadian Medical Association, and the Vancouver Medical Association.

The Canadian Anaesthetists' Society extends sincerest sympathy to his family. The deceased was forty-nine years of age.
