OBITUARY

ROBERT DONALD MILLAR

DR. ROBERT DONALD MILLAR died at Vancouver, British Columbia, on March 22, 1974. Dr. Millar was born at Battleford, Saskatchewan. He graduated in medicine from the University of Alberta in 1937, and opened a practice in the Kerrisdale area of Vancouver. He enlisted in the R.C.N.V.R. and served on both the Pacific and Atlantic coasts. He spent two years on sea duty in the North Atlantic on escort duty to Murmansk and was discharged as Surgeon Lieutenant Commander.

Dr. Millar returned to practice in the Kerrisdale area of Vancouver, and subsequently joined the Anaesthesia Department of St. Vincent's Hospital, of which he was a member at the time of his death.

Dr. Millar is survived by his widow, Ellen, and son, Cameron and three grandchildren of Prince George, British Columbia.

He was a member of the Canadian Medical Association, the Canadian Anaesthetists' Society, American Society of Anaesthesiology, and the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada.