ERRATA

Historical Archaeology 33(4) included an article by Steven R. Pendery, "Portuguese Tin-glazed Earthenware in Seventeenth-Century New England: A Preliminary Study," where figures 5 and 9 were incorrectly proportioned. They are reprinted below, correctly proportioned.
