Behaviorists for Social Action Journal

This journal functions as a forum for the discussion of ethical, social, and political issues as they relate to the field of behavior analysis. The journal serves as a vehicle for the critical appraisal of the effects, both practical and theoretical, of behavior analysis as an actual or potential force capable of contributing to the oppression as well as the liberation of humanity.

Any person who agrees with our Statement of Purpose may become a member of BFSA by paying an annual membership fee of $2.00. To support BFSA as the only organization of behaviorists specifically committed to the struggle against social injustice, Sustaining Membership with an annual fee of $25.00 has been established. Membership, subscriptions, change of address, and other business correspondence should be addressed to:
