The authors wish to retract this article, published online on 22 June 2013, because a calculation error has become apparent. Some of the data in Table 2 and ESM Tables 4 and 5 are incorrect, as are some of the secondary conclusions. The authors regret this error and confirm that the main conclusion remains valid.

This retraction is intended to maintain the integrity of material published in Diabetologia and the journal acknowledges the full cooperation of the authors.

A corrected version of the paper is available at: DOI 10.1007/s00125-013-3063-1.
