The correct Figs. 1, 2, and 3 are given below:

Fig. 1 An evolution-based, example-driven creative modeling tool [45] allows generations of 3D models to be created. The highlighted models exhibit diversity from the input set
