Unfortunately, the two articles were published with errors. Since we published these articles, we have found that the name of the Raphanus sativus-root cv. Yipinghong used in the titles and in the whole articles is not the correct name, which should instead be Raphanus sativus-root cv. Yidianhong. This correction does not adversely affect any aspects of the publications in question. We regret this error and apologize for any confusion and inconvenience that it may have caused.
