Erratum to: J Bone Miner Metab DOI 10.1007/s00774-016-0810-7

In the original publication of the article, the following sentence appearing under the sub section “Dental treatments in patients who are to receive antiresorptive therapy” has been incorrectly published as:

“During dental treatment in these patients, interactive communication and close cooperation between physicians and dentists is essential”.

The corrected sentence should read as:
