The article: “The sequential magnetic resonance images of tri-methyl tin leukoencephalopathy” (Hwang CH (2009) Neurol Sci 30(2):153–158) has been retracted upon request of the author since he unintentionally reported clinical data already published in the article “A case of acute organotin poisoning” (Yoo CI, Kim Y et al (2007) J Occup Health 49:305–310).

The online version of the original article can be found under doi:10.1007/s10072-009-0028-8.
