Apology. Because of my negligence, I have submitted an earlier edition of the article in the final confirmation email and forgot to add the article of Chandrasekera et al. (2012) to the reference list. The article of Chandrasekera et al. (2012) was outstanding and valuable. And the research thought and data processing method of my article partly used the article of Chandrasekera et al. (2012) as reference. Now I want to add the article of Chandrasekera et al. (2012) to my reference list to correct the mistake I have made. And I want to send my sincere apology to the authors for my negligence. Please accept my apology.

Sincerely yours,
Yecheng Wang
