For the last several years, the number of papers submitted to the Journal has continued to increase steadily, from 740 submissions in 2012, to 822 in 2013, and 940 last year. Of these, less than a third (about 30 %) were ultimately accepted. Having expanded our editorial board and the number of associate editors, JADD continues to produce the highest quality articles despite the increased volume. In addition, the Journal has maintained an efficient turnaround time for the majority of reviews, averaging about 40 days before authors receive a first decision. Given the increased volume of papers the rejection rate, not surprisingly, has also risen. To conserve valuable Journal space, authors are encouraged to use online resources to publish extra supplementary, but still valuable, materials that can reasonably be included in online appendices.

As always, I'm deeply grateful to the Associate Editors: Joshua Diehl, Sandra Harris, Christopher McDougale, Ann S. Le Couteur, James McPartland, Nancy Minshew, Jeremy M. Veenstra-Vanderweele. Each has generously and diligently supported the work of the Journal, even in the face of the growing number of submissions. During the past year, we have also welcomed the following new Associate Editors: Marc Woodbury-Smith, McMaster University, Carla Mazefsky, University of Pittsburgh Medical Center, and Susan White, Virginia Tech. We also acknowledge the hard work of our book editor, Brian Reichow, PhD, at the University of Florida, who has also become an Associate Editor. In the Journal office, Lori Klein, Editorial Manager, and Isaac Smith, Editorial Assistant, have worked diligently to ensure that papers conform to editorial standards even before they enter the peer review process. We also thank Judy Jones at Springer and the individuals involved in the production of the Journal including Garth Haller, Michelle Tam, Suganya Manikandan, and Bhanuprakash Sherla.

We welcome the following new members to the editorial board, all very worthy having submitted several reviews this past year: Jan Blacher, Graduate School of Education, University of California, Riverside, Nirit Bauminger-Zviely, Bar-Ilan University, Ramat-Gan, Israel, Gagan Joshi, Massachusetts General Hospital, Boston, MA, Oren Shtayermman, New York Institute of Technology, Old Westbury, NY, Inge-Marie Eigsti, University of Connecticut, Storrs, CT, Tina Goldsmith, Trumpet Behavioral Health, Lakewood, CO, Christine Syriopoulou, University of Macedonia, Thessaloniki, Greece, Sara Jane Webb, University of Washington, Seattle, WA.

We also want to acknowledge the "Top 10" reviewers (i.e., those individuals who provided the greatest number of comprehensive, thorough and timely reviews) for the Journal this year:

1. Kenneth Aitken
2. Brian Reichow
3. Ernst VanBergeijk
4. Johnny Matson
5. Deborah Fein
6. Lynn Koegel
7. Susan White
8. Marc Woodbury Smith
9. Christine Syriopoulou
10. David Simmons

We list below the names of all individuals who have contributed one or more reviews to the Journal this year. Although far from perfect, peer review is the most effective way we have, as a field, to ensure the quality of our
