Erratum to: J Insect Conserv (2011) 15:839–852 DOI 10.1007/s10841-011-9382-y

Unfortunately, in the original publication on page 844, the second paragraph, “Lake Erie, whereas C. h. hirticollis ranges similarly but south along the southern edges of Lake Ontario and Lake Erie. The current phrasing sounds dismissive” should be removed from the paper, as it was mistakenly published.
