Erratum to: J Insect Conserv (2014) 18:523–537 DOI 10.1007/s10841-014-9668-y

Due to an unfortunate mistake, two inadvertent errors were published.

In the abstract, the sentence “Nests of European Atypus species have never been found in habitats subject to recent or even regular distribution” should be replaced by “Nests of European Atypus species have never been found in habitats subject to recent or even regular disturbance”.

On page 530, the following sentence, “In the beginning of the paragraph you say every year. Maybe I misunderstand ‘control’. If this is not monitoring you may have to change that.” should not have been included in the publication. It was mistakenly published.
