Dear Colleagues,

In this short editorial I am happy to inform you that we are marching ahead trying to publish more papers per year without reducing quality. We keep a closer look to the review process cycle, reminding consistently reviewers of late reviews. The acceptance rate is about 30% (last two years) and it is anticipated that it will stabilize around 20% in the next year or so.

I assure you that all of us in the Editorial Board are cooperating to get things done in an as optimal way as possible. The work load is increasing since we have in the queue several special issues too.

Enjoy the issue.
