Please note that in the 3rd paragraph under the heading “Black Teacher as Role Model”, there is a sentence that needs correction.

The second sentence, which reads:

Historian John Mabee (1979) at the American Convention of Abolitionist Societies called for Black teachers to be hired in schools in the free North because they could “kindle a spirit of emulation.” (p. 93)

Should in fact read:

Historian John Mabee (1979) noted that the American Convention of Abolitionist Societies called for Black teachers to be hired in schools in the free North because they could “kindle a spirit of emulation.” (p. 93)
