On Page 9 of 11 of the published article, in the last paragraph the authors wrote:

"The limitations noted earlier for LDX (including contraindication for obesity and weight loss) potentially limit its relevance as a viable combination or additive strategy to enhance psychological treatments for BED."

The authors would like the above sentence to read:

"The limitations noted earlier for LDX (including the "Limitation of Use" that it is not indicated for weight loss and the "Warning" regarding the potential for abuse) potentially limit its relevance as a viable combination or additive strategy to enhance psychological treatments for BED."
