The Endocrine Pathology Society is pleased to invite nominations for the Hubert J. Wolfe Award for 2011. This award, established in memory of Hubert J. Wolfe, is presented annually to honor an outstanding original research paper in the field of endocrine pathology published during the previous calendar year by a pathologist-in-training. The award and accompanying prize will be presented at the society's annual meeting at USCAP on March 2012. A letter of nomination and a copy of the paper should be sent to the Wolfe Committee Co-Chairs by 1 February 2012.
