Received April 23, 2015/Revised November 10, 2015/Accepted November 29, 2015

The Editors of KSCE Journal of Civil Engineering have decided to retract this article for reasons of duplication. Investigation by the Editors revealed substantial overlap throughout the entire text with this previously-published article:

M. A. Dulebenets, M. M. Golias, and S. Mishra (2015). “The green vessel schedule design problem: consideration of emissions constraints” Energy Systems, DOI 10.1007/s12667-015-0183-3.

The online version of this article contains the full text of the retracted article as electronic supplementary material.
