Dear Reader,

CECOG's website recently underwent a relaunch and you are all kindly invited to visit us regularly at www.cecog.org and learn more about our current and planned activities.

Besides the information contained on our website, the following services offered by CECOG show the complexity of our activities and we hope that we can discuss one or the other project opportunity with you.

Consulting and protocol development

- Scientific advice and support e.g. for new drug combinations
- Design and clinical trial management including strategic plans for regulatory and EC approval and commercial considerations
- Evaluation of possible options for various indications
- Clinical programme review and "gap analysis"
- Definition of intelligent trial endpoints
- Statistical analysis plan

Protocol implementation

- Study site selection (including feasibility) according to output in previous trials and customer needs
- Investigator identification and recruitment
- IRB submission, import licence and logistics for drug delivery
- Fast patient enrolment and accrual strategies
- High quality data generation via on-site monitoring
- Contracting, budget management and payment
- Full regulatory compliance
- Data collection, evaluation and statistical analysis

Professional presentation of results

- Evaluation of study results and further steps
- Posters and oral presentations at international conferences (ASCO, ESMO, etc.)
- Publication in top peer-reviewed journals
- Access to "MEMO" (Springer) which is CECOG's official scientific journal

Education

- Skeletal Care Academy
- Organisation of Consensus Development Conferences uniting opinion leaders from all over the world
