Please note that there are errors in this article:

On pages 352 (right column) and 353 (left column), in the “Case report” section, figure citations should be renumbered as follows:

Now shows:	Should read:
Fig. 1	Fig. 1a
Fig. 2	Fig. 1b

In addition, on page 353 (right column), also in the “Case report” section, lines 4–10 should read as follows, with the figure citations as shown here:

“The resected specimen revealed that the main tumor was a well-differentiated adenocarcinoma arising from the caudate lobe (Fig. 2b), whereas almost all neoplastic cells were replaced by extensive fibrosis, hyalinization, and hemosiderosis (Fig. 3a). Furthermore, dissected regional lymph nodes also showed marked fibrosis and no evidence of a viable tumor (Fig. 3b).”
