Editor Acknowledgments and Forthcoming Special Issues

Bob Geffner^{1,2,3}

Published online: 9 March 2017
© Springer International Publishing 2017

The Journal of Child and Adolescent Trauma (JCAT) will have a variety of special topics in future issues. The second installment of the current special issue will appear in the following issue. Future special issues this year and next include: Child Trafficking and Sexual Exploitation, guest editor Monica Ulibarri; Incorporating Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs) Research into Practice, guest editors David Corwin & Victor Vieth; Cyberbullying of Ethnic Minority, LGBTQ, and Other Marginalized Adolescents, guest editors Guadalupe Espinoza & Michelle Wright; Medical Neglect in Childhood, guest editors Randall Alexander, Barbara Knox, Debra Esernio-Jenssen, and Francois Luyet; Cruelty to Animals and Child Abuse, guest editor Barbara Boat and others; resiliency in traumatized youth, and immigration trauma. Please contact our office or myself if you are interested in being a guest editor or co-editor of a special issue or have an article that might fit into one of those planned.

I want to acknowledge the efforts of my staff who have worked on the journal and have been largely responsible for the success we have seen. I would like to thank Jessica Mueller who has been the Managing Editorial Assistant for the past couple of years, and Maureen Hallett and Rebekah Mastel for their assistance with JCAT during the past year. I want to especially acknowledge Sarah Robinson who has also been very helpful in the special issues for the journals as well as for JCAT. Our editorial assistant for 2017 is Eric Mendoza as Sarah moves to Senior Editorial Assistant. In addition, Morgan Shaw, Psy.D., will be taking over as Publications Coordinator for our Institute on Violence, Abuse and Trauma (IVAT).

I would also like to acknowledge a few editorial board members who are rotating off the board. Patricia Kerig is rotating off being Associate Editor of JCAT to take over editorship of another journal. I wish her the best for her new endeavor. We have added as an Associate Editor, Jennifer Parker who directs the Child Advocacy Studies Training (CAST) Program at the University of South Carolina, Upstate (USCU). In addition, the CAST Program there has taken over as a key collaborator for the journal that has been located at the CAST program at Gundersen Health Systems in Wisconsin. We are very pleased to have USCU working with us and JCAT now to expand our reach and encourage additional submissions and special issues. Other Editorial board members rotating off are Joanne Levine Karger and Bengt Soderstrum. They have been helpful in providing reviews and feedback for articles submitted for possible publication in JCAT. I appreciate their support for the journal.

We have added new Editorial Board members for 2017. These include Michelle Harriman, Maureen Kenny, Monica Ulibarri, Marc Felizzi, and Roberta Sprague. Their affiliations are listed on the inside of the front cover of the journal and on the website. I look forward to working with them in the coming year.

Thank you again for all of your support and interest in our journal. Take care.

✉ Bob Geffner
bgeffner@alliant.edu

¹ Institute in Violence, Abuse & Trauma (IVAT), San Diego, CA, USA

² Family Violence & Sexual Assault Institute (FVSAI), San Diego, CA, USA

³ National Partnership to End Interpersonal Violence Across the Lifespan (NPEIV), San Diego, CA, USA