Website: www.uicc.org

Contact: Dr Tristan Piguet, Global Training Manager

UICC fellowships provide opportunities for professional development for cancer investigators, clinicians, nurses, and cancer society staff and volunteers.

American Cancer Society UICC International Fellowships for Beginning Investigators (ACSB)

Subjects: Oncology.

Purpose: To facilitate cancer investigators and clinicians, who are in the early stages of their careers, to conduct cancer research projects into the pre-clinical, clinical, epidemiological, psychological, behavioural, health services, health policy, outcomes and cancer-control aspects of the disease.

Eligibility: Beginning investigators and clinicians in the early stages of their independent investigation have a minimum of two and a maximum of 10 years of postdoctoral experience after obtaining their MD or PhD degrees. Must possess a terminal, advanced degree with a desire to become an independent investigator. Applicants are to be in the early phases of their career and no longer under research mentoring. Please note that this is neither a first postdoctoral fellowship nor a clinical training fellowship. Candidates must hold an academic university or hospital position with an explicit commitment to return to home institute. Please note that fellowships are awarded only to individuals who will be conducting their research at not-for-profit institutions. Unsolicited applications will not be accepted from, nor will fellowship be awarded for, the support of research conducted at for-profit institutions.

Level of Study: Research

Type: Fellowship

Value: US$50,000 each for travel and stipend

Length of Study: 1 year

Frequency: Annual

Study Establishment: A suitable host institute abroad

Country of Study: Any country

No. of awards offered: 6–8 per year

Application Procedure: Online application process.

Closing Date: November 1st

Funding: Commercial

Contributor: American Cancer Society

No. of awards given last year: 4

No. of applicants last year: 16

Additional Information: Awards are conditional on the return of the fellow to the home institute at the end of fellowship and on the availability of appropriate facilities and resources to apply the newly acquired skills. Terminal degree is generally accepted as the highest degree in a field of study. An earned academic (or research) doctorate such as Doctor of Philosophy is considered the terminal degree in most academic fields of study in some countries. Many professional degrees are also considered terminal degrees because they are the highest professional degree in the field, even though 'higher' research degrees exist.

UICC Asia-Pacific Cancer Society Training Grants

Subjects: Oncology.

Purpose: To increase the capacity of volunteers and staff of voluntary cancer societies located in the Asia Pacific region by participating in, and learning from activities conducted by established collaborating cancer societies in the region.

Eligibility: Staff or accredited volunteers of voluntary cancer societies located in the Asia-Pacific region.

Level of Study: Professional development, Unrestricted

Type: Grant

Value: US$1,800

Length of Study: 1 week

Frequency: Annual

Country of Study: India, Australia, Singapore

No. of awards offered: 5–10 per year

Application Procedure: Candidates must choose one of the projects offered and submit their curriculum vitae together with a 'letter of justification' to the host society with a request for a formal invitation to participate in the specific project. The letter of justification must describe why a specific project was chosen, how candidates and their organizations would benefit from this experience and how they would disseminate the new skills upon return. On-line application on the www.apcasot.org under the 'Apply now section.'

Closing Date: September 21st

Funding: Trusts

Contributor: (1) William Rudder Memorial Fund (Australia). (2) The Cancer Council New South Wales, Sydney, Australia. (3) The Cancer Council Queensland, Brisbane, Australia. (4) Cancer Patients Aid Association, Mumbai, India. (5) Singapore Cancer Society, Singapore

No. of awards given last year: 6

No. of applicants last year: 8

Additional Information: Selection results will be notified in mid-December. Awards are subject to the UICC general conditions for fellowships.

UICC International Cancer Research Technology Transfer Fellowships (ICRETT)

Subjects: Cancer control and prevention, epidemiology and cancer registration, public education and behavioural sciences.

Purpose: To facilitate the rapid international transfer of cancer research and clinical technology; to exchange knowledge and enhance skills in basic, clinical, behavioural and epidemiological areas of cancer research, and in cancer control and prevention; and to acquire up-to-date clinical management, diagnostic and therapeutic expertise.

Eligibility: Investigators and clinicians should be working in places where such teaching is not yet available and where the necessary facilities exist to apply and disseminate the new skills upon return. Qualified cancer investigators should be at the early stages in their careers, while clinicians should be well established in their oncology practice.

Level of Study: Professional development

Type: Fellowship

Value: US$3,400

Length of Study: 1–3 months with stipend support for 1 month

Study Establishment: A suitable host institute abroad

Additional Information: Candidates who are already physically present at the proposed host institute while their applications are under consideration are not eligible for a UICC fellowship.

UICC Yamagiwa-Yoshida Memorial International Cancer Study Grants

Subjects: Basic, translational or applied research.

Purpose: To enable cancer investigators from any country to carry out bilateral research projects that exploit complementary materials or skills, including advanced training in experimental methods or special techniques.

Eligibility: Open to appropriately qualified investigators from any country who are actively engaged in cancer research. Candidates who are already physically present at the proposed host institute are not eligible.

Level of Study: Professional development, Research

Type: Grant

Value: The average stipend is US$10,000. If a Fellow's return home is delayed beyond the extra approved period, 50 per cent of the travel award, the return portion has to be reimbursed to the UICC.

Calculation of travel and stipend awards are based on the candidate's estimates which are adjusted, if need be, to published fares and UICC scales. Travel awards contribute to the least expensive international return air fares or other appropriate form of transport. Travel estimates should not include costs for internal travel within the home or host countries. These and extra costs for visa, passports, airport taxes and insurance are the responsibility of the Fellow. No financial support is provided for dependants

Length of Study: 3 months. May be extended by their original duration, subject to written approval of the home and host supervisors. Funding for these additional periods may be secured from other funding agencies

Frequency: Annual

Study Establishment: A suitable host institute abroad

Country of Study: Any country

No. of awards offered: 15

Application Procedure: Online application.

Closing Date: January 15th for notification by mid-April, July 1st for notification by mid-October

UNIVERSITIES FEDERATION FOR ANIMAL WELFARE (UFAW)

The Old School, Brewhouse Hill, Wheathampstead,
 Hertfordshire, AL4 8AN, England
Tel: (44) 15 8283 1818
Fax: (44) 15 8283 1414
Email: ufaw@ufaw.org.uk
Website: www.ufaw.org.uk

The Universities Federation for Animal Welfare (UFAW), the international animal welfare science society, is a U.K. registered scientific and educational charity that brings together the animal welfare science community, educators, veterinarians and all concerned about animal welfare worldwide in order to achieve advances in the well-being of farm, companion, laboratory and captive wild animals, and for those animals with which we interact in the wild.

UFAW Animal Welfare Research Training Scholarships

Subjects: UFAW would particularly like to encourage applications in the following fields: development of methodologies aimed at elucidation of the neurological basis of sentience in animals; developments in approaches to alleviating welfare problems in farmed, companion and/or laboratory animals through breeding; developments in detection and alleviation of pain; developments of methods of welfare/quality of life assessment. However, UFAW does not wish to exclude potentially valuable projects in other aspects of animal welfare science and applications for work in other areas will also be considered.

Purpose: To encourage high-quality science likely to lead to substantial advances in animal welfare and to enable promising graduates to start a career in animal welfare science.

Eligibility: Open to nationals of any country studying in the United Kingdom.

Level of Study: Doctorate

Type: Scholarship

Value: Science graduates: £19,339 rising to £22,619 for the third year (London weighting £21,629 rising to £25,298 for the third year), veterinary graduates, £20,306 rising to £23,750 for the third year (London weighting £22,710 rising to £26,563 for the third year). Research costs up to £10,000 per year and approved tuition fees up to £3,466 per year will be met

Length of Study: 3 years

Frequency: Dependent on funds available

Country of Study: United Kingdom

Application Procedure: Application for this award is by a two-stage process. Initially, supervisors are required to submit a brief Concept Note available from the UFAW website www.ufaw.org.uk or by emailing the UFAW Scientific Officer at scioff@ufaw.org.uk. Following assessment of these concept notes selected applicants will then be invited to submit more detailed proposals prepared jointly by the supervisor and PhD candidate.

Closing Date: Check with website

Funding: Private

Additional Information: Please see the website for further details www.ufaw.org.uk/AWRResearchtrainingscholarship.php.

UFAW Animal Welfare Student Scholarships

Subjects: Research that is likely to provide new insight into the subjective mental experiences of animals relevant to their welfare and at understanding their needs and preferences, and also applied research aimed at developing practical solutions to animal welfare problems.

Purpose: To encourage students to develop their interests in animal welfare and their abilities for animal welfare research.

Eligibility: Applications are welcome from individuals studying at universities or colleges in the United Kingdom or an overseas institution at which there is a UFAW University Links representative. Students will usually be undertaking courses in the agricultural, biological, medical, psychological, veterinary or zoological sciences. Applicants need a nominated supervisor to oversee the project.

Level of Study: Graduate

Type: Scholarship

Value: UK£170 subsistence and UK£30 departmental expenses for each week of study

Length of Study: Funding provided for a maximum of 8 weeks (although project duration may be longer)

Frequency: Annual

No. of awards offered: Up to 15

Application Procedure: Applicants must complete a UFAW Animal Welfare Student Scholarship application form available for download from the UFAW website www.ufaw.org.uk.

Closing Date: February 26th

Please see the website for further details www.ufaw.org.uk/ResearchandProjectAwards.php.

UFAW Small Project and Travel Awards

Subjects: Through its Small Project and Travel Awards (up to £3,500) UFAW supports a variety of activities for the benefit of animal welfare. Applications may be made for: the purchase of equipment; organization of educational meetings, lectures and courses; publication, translation or transmission of information on animal welfare; and for other small projects in support of UFAW's objectives. Particularly welcomed are applications for pilot studies where there is a likelihood of successful completion leading to further, more substantial work. Please note, all applications are judged on their merits for animal welfare and (in the case of research applications) their scientific quality.

Purpose: To support research projects and other activities for the benefit of animal welfare.

Eligibility: Open to nationals of any country.

Level of Study: Unrestricted

Type: Grant

Value: Up to UK£3,500

Length of Study: For the duration of the approved works

Frequency: Dependent on funds available

Country of Study: Any country

Just 175 years ago, the benefits of a university education in England were restricted to men who were members of the Church of England; University College London (UCL) was founded to challenge that discrimination. UCL was the first university to be established in England after Oxford and Cambridge, providing a progressive alternative to those institutions social exclusivity, religious restrictions and academic constraints. UCL is the largest of over 50 colleges and institutes that make up the federal University of London.

Research Grants

Eligibility: Candidates for the Research Grants must be applying to read for the degree of PhD in the University of Cambridge, or, if applying for a one-year course, intending that this should be followed immediately by registration for a PhD in Cambridge. The award is open to candidates who: are either already members of Trinity Hall or who have made Trinity Hall their college of first preference on the GAF Form; they are tenable uniquely at Trinity Hall, and for as long as a student remains a member of Trinity Hall; are (usually first-class) Honours graduates of a respected university or other degree-awarding institution (including Cambridge); if not already graduates, they should have graduated by August; confirmation of awards may rely on satisfactory results in final degree examinations; have been provisionally accepted by their Faculty and by the Board of Graduate Studies to start their study the following academic year. Awards are only tenable by students who begin their course in the Michaelmas Term of the relevant academic year. If we have not received your application by the closing date and you have applied to us for funding, we will defer your application to our reserve list. This means that students should make their applications to the university as early as possible. Bursaries and Studentships can be renewed, depending on the length of the initial award; for MPhil students supported with a Bursary or Studentship, reapplication is required; for PhD students, renewal is subject to review of diligence and progress, in the form of an annual progress report and accompanying letter of support from the supervisor.

Trinity Hall Overseas Studentship

Subjects: Awarded to an overseas student, applying to read for the degree of PhD in the University of Cambridge, or, if applying for a one-year course, intending that this should be followed immediately by registration for a PhD in Cambridge.

Eligibility: The award is open to candidates who: are an overseas student, applying to read for the degree of PhD in the University of Cambridge; are either already members of Trinity Hall or who have made Trinity Hall their college of first preference on the GAF form; they are tenable uniquely at Trinity Hall, and for as long as a student remains a member of Trinity Hall; are (usually first-class) Honours graduates of a respected university or other degree-awarding institution (including Cambridge); if not already graduates, they should have graduated by August. Confirmation of awards may rely on satisfactory results in final degree examinations; have been provisionally accepted by their Faculty and by the Board of Graduate Studies to start their study the following academic year. Awards are only tenable by students who begin their course in the Michaelmas Term of the relevant academic year. If we have not received your application by the closing date and you have applied to us for funding, we will defer your application to our reserve list. This means that students should make their applications to the university as early as possible. Bursaries and Studentships can be renewed, depending on the length of the initial award; for MPhil students supported with a Bursary or Studentship, reapplication is required; for PhD students, renewal is subject to review of diligence and progress, in the form of an annual progress report and accompanying letter of support from the supervisor.

Level of Study: Research, Doctorate

Type: Studentship

Value: A full-cost studentship, covering maintenance costs, university and college fees

Frequency: Annual

Study Establishment: Cambridge
