Contact: Ms Wykenna S.C. Vailor, Research Awards Manager

The Foundation for Digestive Health and Nutrition is the foundation of the American Gastroenterological Association (AGA), the leading professional society representing gastroenterological and hepatologists worldwide. It is separately incorporated and governed by a distinguished board of AGA physicians and members of the lay public. The Foundation raises funds for research and public education in the prevention, diagnosis, treatment and cure of digestive diseases. Along with the AGA, it conducts public education initiatives related to digestive diseases. The Foundation also administers the disbursement of grants on the behalf of the AGA and other funders.

AGA Fellowship to Faculty Transition Awards

Subjects: Medical science, specifically gastroenterology and hepatology.

Purpose: To prepare physicians for independent research careers in digestive diseases.

Eligibility: Applicants must be MDs or MD/PhDs currently in a gastroenterology-related fellowship, at a North American institution and committed to academic careers. They should have completed at least 2 years of research training at the start of this award. Women and minority investigators are strongly encouraged to apply. Applicants must be AGA Trainee Members or be sponsored by an AGA Member at the time of application.

Level of Study: Postgraduate

Type: Award

Value: US$40,000 per year

The Fund for Theological Education advocates excellence and diversity in pastoral ministry and theological scholarship. Through our initiatives, we enable gifted young people throughout the Christian community to explore and respond to God's calling in their lives. We seek to be a creative, informed catalyst for educational and faith communities in developing their own capacities to nurture men and women for vocations in ministry and teaching. We also aim to awaken the larger community to the contributions of pastoral leaders and educators who act with faith, imagination and courage to serve the common good.
