On page 42, the caption to Figure 1 is correct, but the figure should be

The following footnote is missing from page 110:

*Starting in 1861 (Volume 43), papers on chemical subjects were published with those in physics, mathematics, etc., as part 2. From 1889 (Volume 97), the chemical part of the Sitzungsberichte became so voluminous that it was continued as part 2b in the form of separate volumes until 1953 (Volume 162). From 1880, the separate volumes were also published as Monatshefte für Chemie (now Monatshefte für Chemie/Chemical Monthly), which is still the most important Austrian chemical journal.

Wesleyan University Press is the correct publisher for Reference 11 on page 197.
