In the article "Concentration and composition of dissolved organic carbon in streams in relation to catchment soil properties", by Nelson PN, Baldock JA & Oades JM (1993, Biogeochemistry 19: 27–50) two articles were missing from the reference section. These were:

Nodvin SC, Driscoll CT & Likens GE (1986) Simple partitioning of anions and dissolved organic carbon in a forest soil. Soil Sci. 142: 27–35

Qualls R & Haines BL (1992) Measuring adsorption isotherms using continuous unsaturated flow through intact soil cores. Soil Sci. Soc. Am. J. 56: 456–460
