

OBITUARY

It is with deep regret that I report the death of Alistair Thom, a young scientist of great distinction. Alistair was a valued member of the Editorial Board of Boundary-Layer Meteorology; his referee reports were perceptive and always helpful to the author.

A book review by Alistair Thom is published posthumously on page 533 of this issue.

R. E. MUNN