

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Department of Philosophical Studies of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, in joint sponsorship with the Association for Symbolic Logic, takes great pleasure in announcing 'An International Conference on Relevance Logic', to be held in St. Louis, Miss., from September 26–28, 1974.

The conference will be devoted to an examination of both the logical and philosophical aspects of relevance logics. There will be planned sessions on the following topics: (I) The Pros and Cons of Relevance Logics; (II) Philosophical Applications and Implications; (III) Neighbors and Relatives of E and R; (IV) Semantics and Proof Theory; (V) Negation in Relevance Logics. In addition there will be one session for contributed papers. Among those presently scheduled to read papers are the following: Alan Ross Anderson, John A. Barker, Nuel D. Belnap, Jr., J. Michael Dunn, Kit Fine, Dov M. Gabbay, Louis F. Goble, Robert K. Meyer, Garrel Pottinger, R. Zane Parks, William T. Parry, Richard Routley and Alasdair Urquhart.

Papers submitted for the open session may be on any aspect, logical or philosophical, of relevance logics and may reflect any point of view toward such topics. The papers to be read at the open session will be selected by the steering committee composed of Alan Ross Anderson, Nuel D. Belnap, Jr., Kenneth W. Collier, Robert K. Meyer and Robert G. Wolf. It is planned to publish the proceedings of the conference.

Individuals interested in further information about the conference should write to Professor Robert G. Wolf, Department of Philosophical Studies, Southern Illinois University, Edwardsville, Ill. 62025. Individuals interested in submitting papers to the open session should write to Professor Kenneth W. Collier at the same address. The deadline for submitted papers is 1 April 1974.

The Program Committee of the American Philosophical Association, Pacific Division, is pleased to announce that the Carus Lectures will be delivered by Professor William Frankena at the 48th Annual Meeting in San Francisco, March 28–30, 1974.

ERRATUM

In the paper of H. Leblanc, 'Matters of Relevance', Journal of Philosophical Logic 1 (1972), 269–286, delete on page 276, lines 9 and 10, both horseshoe symbols.