

IN MEMORIAM

ROBERT DANIEL MILLER

1910 - 1972

With deep sorrow I report the death, after a brief illness, of Dr. Robert D. Miller, longtime Professor of Philosophy in The Florida State University, and one of our highly esteemed Associate Editors. For twenty years a dear friend and honored colleague of mine, he was of immeasurable help and encouragement to me in getting the Journal started and ever afterward. I am profoundly indebted to him, and so is the Journal.

Ave atque vale!
