Impairment of stereoacuity in cats with oculomotor proprioceptive deafferentation

A. Fiorentini, M. C. Cenni, and L. Maffei

Experimental Brain Research (1986) 63: 364–368

In the reference list on page 368, right column, the first listing reads:

“Hein A, Diamond R (1983) Eye movement and proprioception from the extraocular muscles are critical to development of visually guided behaviour. Invest Ophthalmol Visual Sci Suppl 8: 10–30.”

This quotation is inappropriate.

It should read:

Hein A, Diamond R (1983) Contribution of eye movement to the representation of space. In: Hein A, Jeannerod M (eds) Spatially oriented behaviour. Springer New York, pp 119–133.
