

Isenberg, M.D. and Alan F. Hoffman, M.D. and co-directors are Kiertisin Dharmasathaphorn, M.D. and Stephen J. Pandol, M.D. The course is designed to provide information of direct clinical relevance to practicing internists, gastroenterologists, surgeons, and radiologists. Recent advances in the understanding and management of gastrointestinal disease will be covered. Emphasis will be placed on an interdisciplinary approach, stressing novel aspects of the clinical assessment and treatment of patients with gastrointestinal diseases, including disease of the liver and pancreas.

Fee: The fees for the course will be $425.00 for practicing physicians and $275.00 for physicians in training and technologists. The course will be accredited for 19 to 22 credit hours in Category I.

For more information, please contact: Dawne Ryals, Ryals & Associates, P.O. Box 1925, Roswell, GA 30077-1925, (404) 641-9773, Fax (404) 552-9859.

Seminars in MRI will be held January 19–26, 1991 in Vail, Colorado. Sponsored by The Medical College of Wisconsin, this six-day program will concentrate on the common and complex problems encountered in magnetic resonance imaging of the body and neurologic system. Faculty includes Drs. Brahme, Ehman, Harnsberger, Heiken, Hesselink, Lawson, and Ramsey. Morning and afternoon lectures and seminars will provide adequate free time for recreation.

Fee: The fee for the course is $500.00. The course is certified for 30 hours of credit in Category I.

12th Annual Intermountain Imaging Conference to be held February 19–26, 1991 in Steamboat Springs, Colorado. This six-day conference is sponsored by The Medical College of Wisconsin. The program consists of a series of lectures and seminars covering imaging of the chest, abdomen, mammography, neurologic imaging, obstetrics and gynecology. The conference will focus on integrated imaging and the advantages of various radiologic modalities and problem solving. Faculty includes Drs. Baron, Brant Zawadzki, Charboneau, Freeny, Goldberg, Lawson, Milbrath, Molina, Naidich, and Nyberg.

Fee: The fee for the course is $500.00. The course is certified for 33 hours of Category I credit.

For more information, please contact: Thomas L. Lawson, Department of Radiology, Medical College of Wisconsin, 8700 West Wisconsin Avenue, Milwaukee, WI 53226, USA.

Practical Radiology 1991 is the 9th annual post-graduate course being sponsored by the Department of Radiology at the University of British Columbia. The course will be presented February 3–8, 1991 at the Whistler ski resort which is located some 120 kilometers from Vancouver. Guest faculty include Drs. D. Resnick, R. Webb, P. Freeny, R. Gore, J. Heiken, E. Stewart, D. Stephens, W. Thompson.

Fee: The registration fee is $400.00 (USA) or $465.00 (Canadian), and $300.00 (USA) or $350.00 (Canadian) for residents and fellows. The course is accredited for 21 hours in Category I.

For more information, please contact: H. Joachim Burhenne, M.D., Department of Radiology, University of British Columbia, 10th Avenue and Heather Street, Vancouver, BC, Canada V5Z 1M9 (Telephone: 604-875-4355; Fax 604 875-4319).

The Leeds Gastroenterology Course for Radiologists will be held July 1–5, 1991 at St. James University Hospital, Leeds, England. The fee for the course is £260. Applications should be directed to: Miss Pat Kentley, Level 7, Worsley Medical Building, University of Leeds, Leeds LS2 9JT, UK.

Erratum

Gastrointestinal Radiology 15:343–345

Diffuse Cavernous Hemangioma of the Rectum: Evaluation by MRI. A.R. Lupetin

The corrected title of Dr. Lupetin's article appears above. In the journal, the subtitle was incorrectly listed as "Evaluation and MRI." We apologize for this mistake.