

OBITUARY

DR. HEINZ LORD, Secretary General of the World Medical Association, passed away on February 3, 1961 in Chicago, Illinois according to information received from The Headquarters Secretariat.

On the day of his death, DR. LORD attended the Rural Health Study Conference in Chicago at which he presented a paper entitled, "The Chicago Pattern of Medical Care."

DR. LORD is survived by his wife, and two children, of Sea Cliff, Long Island, New York.