Acknowledgments

I am grateful to W. Buck and R. Barneby for the discussion on the nomenclatural problems reported here. R. Barneby and M. Nee kindly helped me in reading the Latin and French publications. R. Lowen offered constructive comments on the manuscript. I also would like to thank the New York Botanical Garden for financial support during my short research visit to the institution in the winter of 1987.

ERRATUM

Turner, Billie L. 1988. Two new species of Senecio section Palmatinervii (Asteraceae) from eastern Mexico. Brittonia 40(1): 81–84.

The editors regret not catching the following typographical error.

Page 82, the epithet in the protologue heading should read marquezii (not "marquesii"). It is correctly spelled in all other occurrences.
