

OBITUARY

Mario Bracco died on January 5th, 1980. Right to the last, Fate wished to honour his restrained life style. He has left us the finest of memories and remains in our hearts as a master of life and knowledge. He prized freedom above any other value. He pointed the way for us to conquer and defend freedom day-by-day and how, with discretion and love, to accept its limitations.

AGOSTINO CARANDENTE, M.D.
(Editor)