

---

OBITUARY

Dr. P. A. Shah

We deeply mourn the sad and sudden demise of our revered colleague, Dr. P. A. Shah who passed away on 29-3-89 following a car accident. He was born on 10th November 1927 at Jamnagar. He did his graduation and M. S. (General Surgery) from G. S. Medical College. He worked at the Tata Hospital and thereafter proceeded to U. K. where he completed his F. R. C. S. and D. L. O. from London and Edinburgh and was trained for 8 to 9 years.

He returned to India in 1959 and joined the Grant Medical College and J. J. Group of Hospitals as an Asst. Hon. E. N. T. Surgeon and became the Head of the Department in 1981.

During the years he was at J. J. Hospital, he totally identified himself with it and devoted his life to Head and Neck Oncology and the care of the poor and needy. He was a sincere and illustrious teacher and was always ready to lend a helping hand to his junior colleagues. He was honoured by the various E. N. T. Associations all over the country, yet he remained humble and sincere to the end. His death has been an immense loss to all. He is survived by his wife, his two sons Dr. Rajen Shah and Rupin Shah, and daughter—Nimmi.