ANAESTHETIST - QUEENS HEALTH AUTHORITY

The Province of Prince Edward Island is seeking a permanent, full-time anaesthetist, effective January 1, 1996, to provide services at the Queen Elizabeth Hospital. This 300-bed acute care facility, located in the province's historic capital city of Charlottetown, serves as a referral centre for the province's 130,000 residents. Applicants must have certification from the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada or be eligible to write examinations. Picturesque Prince Edward Island offers a relaxing, safe, community-oriented lifestyle for individuals and families who can appreciate beautiful scenery, wide-open spaces, miles of pristine, uncrowded beaches and an endless variety of recreational activities (world-class golf courses, fishing, cross-country skiing). Prince Edward Island ... a good place to work, a great place to live. Inquiries may be directed to:
