
Mitteilung

The Second International Conference on Psychosocial Factors at Work
August 23–26, 2005, Okayama, Japan
“Job Stress – East Meets West”

Topics

New methodology in occupational health psychology
Recent trends in work organization and their impact on worker health
Psychosocial factors at work and their impact on learning and work engagement

Psychosocial factors, performance and safety at work
Traditional and new working time arrangements
Psychophysiology and brain mechanisms in job stress
Cross-cultural (dis)similarities in work stress research
Work-home interface
Intervention and prevention/work redesign
Methodology of intervention and evaluation research
Rehabilitation research
How to bridge the gap between research and practice?

Important deadlines

Abstract submission 1 February, 2005
Notification of paper acceptance 1 April, 2005

Chair Norito Kawakami, MD, Professor
Okayama University
Graduate School of Medicine and Dentistry,
Hygiene and Preventive Medicine
Fax +81 86 235 7178
Phone +81 86 235 7173
<http://www.wops2005.jp>
e-mail: esc@md.okayama-u.ac.jp